MEET THE CHIEF

Robert "Bob" Mazzuca, the Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, is scheduled to attend the Northern California 100th Anniversary Jamboree. A native of San Juan Bautista, CA and a graduate of California Polytechnic State University, Mazzuca is a proud Eagle Scout and longtime supporter of the Scouting organization.

With over 16,000 people signed up to attend the 100th Anniversary NorCal Jamboree, the actual attendance could reach 20,000! Volunteers are still needed in several key areas of the Jamboree. If you are attending the Jamboree, please consider donating a couple hours or more to help make this event a success.

The three areas where extra help is needed are:

1. Program
2. Trading Post

Administration Area

Would you prefer to help out behind the scenes? Adults are needed in the administration area, including money-handling skills.

How to Volunteer

There are three ways to volunteer:

A Bay Area Scout Executive attends a Training Conference in Yosemite in 1923., shows off his handiwork.

Below, scouts show off their backpacks. Scouts in those days made their own backpacks.

1. Register online to volunteer: www.100thanniversaryjamboree.org.

To volunteer, go to the web site, click Program Overview, click on Volunteer to help out, put PROGRAM VOLUNTEER and specific activity in your comment line! You still need to be registered for a day pass or camping entry.

2. Contact the volunteer coordinator Mary Mach mary.mach@comcast.net.

3. Drop by the Volunteer Booth during the Jamboree. The booth is located in front of Building A/Young California by the Clock Tower. At the booth staffers will be able to assign you to an activity where the most help is needed.

PLEASE volunteer for just a few hours and help make the Jambo a success!
